EDITORIAL.

The Editorial this year will not be up to the standard of the rest of the Magazine, I am afraid, as this is an entirely new departure for me.

Although the Coat of Arms, in colours, has appeared on the issues of the last two years, I fear there is still considerable doubt as regards the meaning of the motto. Freely translated, it reads: "You plough, sow, and reap"; very appropriate for an agricultural college.

We were pleased to see that Miss Prichard had returned to her duties at the beginning of the session.

Miss Nicholson was unfortunate in the matter of illness during the Spring Term, and we should like to congratulate her on her splendid recovery. A word of thanks and congratulation is due to Miss Taylor, who during Miss Nicholson's illness carried out very efficiently both the Matron's duties and her own lectures.

The Dramatic Society produced a play, as promised, during the Winter Term; "Eliza Comes to Stay" was a great success, and was enjoyed by all.

The sporting activities of the College have been attended by a fair measure of success. The hockey team, in particular, had a very successful season. The record of the football team would have been greatly improved had not illness and injuries been so numerous. Little can be said of cricket and tennis, for through going to Press early, and several cancelled fixtures, the teams have hardly been settled as yet. The idea of forming a billiards club has proved very successful; the collection of a fixed subscription obviated the difficulty of gathering in money at the end of each term according to the number of games played, also it made possible the purchase of a new cloth at the beginning of the Session.

The Canteen apparently is not doing as well as it ought, and we ask all students to buy there as much as possible, to increase the grants given to the various Clubs.

Contributions for the Magazine have been rather scarce this year, but we wish to thank everyone who did send in something; we hope for an improvement in this direction next year, especially from the Women's Hostel.

C. A. S.

Eliza: Somebody must put ideas into your head, and I thought that being a woman I was the proper person!

(Sandy comes to her quietly, takes her in his arms and kisses her, then says very tenderly): Put on your best hat and we'll go out and buy a special licence."

Curtain.

The play was admirably performed before two crowded houses. Staging effects surpassed previous productions, and reflected great credit upon all concerned. The cast was well chosen, and the various characters faithfully and efficiently interpreted. Indeed, while it is not intended to mention individual attainments, it would be superfluous to do more than record that the manifest enjoyment and applause of the audiences testified to the excellence of the whole production. For they were audiences which had been led for several years to a fine degree of appreciation of Amateur Dramatics at the College. The great expectations with which they came were amply realised. Those who have ever attempted amateur dramatics will realise how much time and labour have to be devoted to the smallest productions to achieve even a modicum of success; so that, to all concerned with this outstanding success the College says—Thank you. Au revoir.

Old Kingstonian Association, 1931-32.

Up to the time of going to Press approximately 225 members have paid their current subscriptions, compared with 174 at the corresponding period last year. This substantial increase has been chiefly due to a concerted effort by the committee to increase the membership. Members who had allowed their subscription to lapse were circularised, whilst in addition circular letters were sent to many past students who had never been members of the Association. Members are again reminded that subscriptions become due on the first of January in each year, and should be forwarded on or before that date to the Hon. Treasurer. Considerable doubt appears to exist among members regarding payment for the Magazine. It should be pointed out that in accordance with the Rules of the Association the Magazine is supplied free of charge to all members who have paid their current subscriptions.

Approximately 75 members attended the Annual Reunion Dinner and Dance, and although the number was considerably less than in the preceding year, the gathering was representative of many years of students, and a very enjoyable evening was spent. Thanks are due to the Governing Body and the Principal for again providing accommodation, to Miss Nicholson for the capable way in which the catering arrangements were made and carried out, and last, but not least, to those resident members of the Association who devoted much of their time to the preparations which are essential for the successful issue of an affair of this kind.

The Tenth Annual General Meeting was held the following morning. Officers for the current year were elected, a list of whom appears earlier in this Magazine. An important motion dealing with the decentralisation of the secretarial activities of the Association was proposed and carried. Details of this have already been circularised, but members are reminded that all general communications must be sent to their respective sectional secretaries, whilst orders for articles in O.K.A. colours must be forwarded direct to Messrs. Longmores (the Association's Outfitters).

WOMEN'S FARM AND GARDEN ASSOCIATION.

Members are notified that the College is no longer affiliated to the above Association, and anyone wishing to become a member must communicate direct with the Women's Farm and Garden Association.

ESSAY PRIZE.

At the Annual General Meeting it was finally decided that owing to lack of support no Essay Prizes would henceforth be offered for competition.

SPORTS FIXTURES.

As in previous years some very keen matches have been played against the students. Although the students appear to have had the best of matters from a match-winning standpoint, all the games have been of a very enjoyable nature. Difficulty has again been experienced in getting together O.K.A. teams, and members are urgently requested to notify their divisional secretaries if they would like a game. A full list of the year's fixtures, together with the results of those matches that have been played to date, is set out below.

SPORTS DAY.

Sports Day this year was favoured with excellent weather, and good performances by some of the students added greatly to the pleasure of the large number of Old Kingstonians who turned up for the day. The O.K.A. race resulted in the best turn-out seen for several years. On the evening of Sports Day members were invited to a dance by the Students' Association. Many members attended and thoroughly appreciated the hospitality thus afforded.

The usual Statement of Accounts is appended.

WM, E. HEATH,

Hon. Secretary.

June 9th, 1932.

O.K.A. Personal Notes.

D. Alston writes, "My time has been completely occupied in rescuing my cousin from embarrassing positions created by his life of dissipation."

J. D. Alston writes in a similar strain. We suspect collaboration.

Miss M. Ashmore writes, "I have managed my father's poultry farm on his general farm since leaving College. Although I was only there a short time the knowledge I gained has been of great benefit to me, and I found the work very interesting. During my two years' work with poultry I have gained two first prizes, one highly commended, and also 90 per cent. marks at shows for eggs."

T. C. D. Atkinson is now at Rochester, Kent, as Sales Manager to Barford and Perkins at their new works.

C. S. Baker is still with Alfa Laval, and is occasionally seen at the College when he is working in the neighbourhood.

W. L. Baker and G. W. Pope are now Salesmen with Silcocks.

Miss G. E. Bellamy is still Manageress of the Kesteven and Lindsey Laying Trials at Branston, near Lincoln, where she has another old student in Miss E. G. Martin as assistant.

Miss L. K. Birkin is enjoying life at home. Amongst other activities she interests herself in poultry and Sealyham dogs.

E. Blakeborough has gone to live in Lincolnshire. We hear that he is greatly missed in Notts., especially by the Osberton Park Cricket Club, of which he was the Captain.

J. A. Brown is an Introducer to the Ipswich Branch of the British Oil and Cake Mills, Ltd. He has in addition a farm consisting of 14 acres of grass paddocks, on which Mrs. Brown (née Miss A. K. Johnson) keeps a considerable number of poultry.

R. H. Browne is busy on a farm at Dean, Charlbury, and has found it impossible to visit the College during the winter.

Miss V. P. Bruff is at Clapham, Kent, and appears to be very fit doing gardening and dairy farming.

Best wishes to Miss D. Clark, who was married during the year.

J. B. Collingham has left the Brotex farm at Wadebridge, and we understand that he is now in Nottingham.

H. T. Cranfield is still at the College, and occasionally offers valuable suggestions regarding the organisation of the Association's activities.

L. G. Crees informs us that he is having a good time as assistant on a farm near Nottingham. He has been engaged for a considerable part of the winter in training a horse that won the trophy in the Farmers' Race at the S. Notts. Point-to-Point at Oxtou.

Miss E. M. Crossley has been seriously ill with eye trouble during the year, but we understand that she is well on the way to recovery. Our best wishes for a complete cure.

L. R. Doughty is expected in England on leave this summer.

Miss D. M. Dudley writes, "I spent eight months looking after poultry on a general farm near College after I left. I am at present on a commercial egg farm two miles outside of Wimbourne, and have been here just over two months.

We offer congratulations to Miss I. Eggleshaw, who was married during the year. She is living near Mansfield.

H. E. Farmery spent five months on a dairy farm in Herts. after leaving College, but has now returned home again.

Miss Grandorge is still managing the Notts. County Egg Laying Trials on their new ground at Ollerton.

Miss W. E. Harvey is in charge of the Belvoir Estate Dairy, and we hear that her butter obtained a prize at the Newark Show.

Miss U. M. Heler is on a large poultry farm at Cooksbridge, assimilating practical poultry lore.

Miss P. M. Holmes has started poultry farming on her own. We wish her every success.

I. Holden writes that he still takes a keen interest in life in spite of a rather bad year. He is living in hopes of better times and weather.

J. P. Hudson has been back to the College taking a Refresher Course for his Degree. A nursery he has started at Chapel-en-le-Frith is still in embryo, but promises to be a distinct success.

Miss M. A. Hunt is continuing her work as Bacteriologist to the Retail Dairymen's Mutual Ltd., London. She informs us that she finds the work full of unexpected interest, as she comes into contact with the very latest problems of the dairy industry. She spent a pleasant time last July at the World's Dairy Congress, where she met Mr. Cranfield.

J. C. and F. H. Hurst are still farming at home, and find farming prospects more depressing than ever.

Miss R. Jackson writes that she is still Instructress in Dairying and Poultry Keeping in Kesteven, and spends most of her spare time playing hockey in winter and tennis in summer.

F. L. Knowles has left the College farm, and is now with Gascoignes.

D. W. Lansdown has been celebrating his election to the Presidency of the Association by taking a very keen interest in its activities. His suggestions have been instrumental in increasing the membership during the current year.

J. L. Lawson writes, "I am now a Non-Collegiate Probationer in the Ministry of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. That means that I am in the ordinary work of the church for a year before I go to College. I came here at the beginning of September last, and hope to go to College in October, and am living in hopes of getting to Cambridge. I have to preach three times on Sunday and three times in the week. I take classes, chairs at meetings, visit the sick, baptise the babies, and all the rest of it. On Easter Sunday I have two weddings." He sounds busy.

S. M. Makins and W. E. Heath are still slaving in the Economics Department of the M.A.C.

J. M. Martin writes, "I am still at Blanefield, although I have been managing a farm in Bucks. and one in Ayrshire since I last communicated with the O.K.A. I am now tenant of Blanefield, and the proud possessor of a wife and a baby girl. I was married in November, 1929. Should any Old Kingstonian happen to be in this part of the country I shall be only too pleased to see them. I occasionally see T. L. Vickers, who is the only Kingstonian I have come across."

Miss Jessie Mathews is on the Dairy Advisory Staff of the Berks. C.C. at Reading.

E. W. R. Mawhood is busy studying and practising auctioneering with a firm of auctioneers at Ross-on-Wye.

The Rev. Canon H. S. Middleton writes that he hopes to arrange his next visit to this country to coincide with some future Re-union.

R. B. Milburn writes, "From September to May I was at the Pottery School, Stoke-on-Trent, and am now awaiting examination results. If satisfactory I shall take the advanced course at Stoke next winter session. This summer I am at the Western Pottery, Parkstone, Dorset, for practical experience, and, I hope, some sun and tennis."

A. B. Moore has left his post in Devon and is back at Rossington.

Congratulations to Miss M. S. Orton, who is being married on June 15th to Mr. John Bainton.

Miss E. Parker has left Brackenhurst Dairy, Southwell.

Members of the Association will be sorry to hear that M. B. Patil passed away during the year.

We understand that M. B. Phillips is assistant on a farm near Grantham, where "Grade A" milk production from a herd of pedigree Ayrshires is a most interesting feature of the farming system.

Our congratulations to Mrs. G. A. Marshall (née Miss J. Pickford) and G. A. Marshall, who were married on June 6th.

H. R. Orrill is assistant on a farm at Loughborough. He has occupied his spare time this winter in conducting a keen investigation into the relative merits of the various beverages retailed in Loughborough.

Miss M. Pickwell writes, "I am fully occupied with my poultry farm at home, but still long to be back at College."

H. B. Pickworth still maintains his unflagging interest in the Association, and has been a frequent visitor to the College during the past year. He is proving a very efficient Sectional Secretary.

C. J. Pope is on the Dairy Advisory Staff of the Berks. C.C. at Reading.

Members will join us in congratulating Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Roberts on the birth of a son and heir.

Miss S. E. Sampson is doing dairy work on her brother's farm at Bradfield Dale.

R. Burt Shaw—See last year's Magazine.

Miss A. A. Shearman, despite the many calls on her time as Assistant Instructress in Dairying for the Notts. County Council, is proving a most efficient Sectional Secretary.

E. Singleton is farming on his own at Oxtun.

READY MIXED RATIONS

judged by results, are infinitely cheaper than home prepared foods.

FOR MILK, GROWTH OR MEAT

they produce results which can only be attained where the finest ingredients, accurately balanced for the purpose in view, are fed.

The combined results of world-wide research and practical farming experience has gone into their manufacture, and it is no exaggeration to say they save money and make feeding fool-proof.
